

City of Detroit Recreation Department Recreation Centers

Center Programs

Looking for activities for the kids? Need an exercise class to help you unwind and keep in shape? If so, stop by your neighborhood recreation center to register for one of our Programs. The Detroit Recreation Department offers After School youth programs for ages 6-17. In addition to our youth programming, we offer adult programs, including fitness activities such as, Tai Chi, Zumba, water aerobics, ceramics, and much more.

Detroit Recreation Department programming focuses on the core areas of social and cultural enrichment, technology, recreation and fitness activities and healthy lifestyle promotion.

Summer Day Camp

The Detroit Recreation Department Day Camp Program offers children ages 6 to 12 the opportunity to enjoy fishing, field trips, swimming, cultural arts, athletic activities, physical fitness and much more. Early Exposure programs for ages 3-5 are available at limited locations. Day Camp is held from June - August. Fees are structured per center and activity.

Senior Programs

Seniors are an active part of our community. We currently offer the Food and Friendship lunch program at seven locations, four of which also include recreation programming. Daily activities and programs range from chair aerobics, water aerobics, hustle, round and square dance, healthy eating and nutrition promotion.

In addition to the daily programs we offer special events, such as Senior Friendship Day, Thanksgiving Thanks and Praise Luncheon, Black History Month Celebration, Senior Camp Fest and Senior Olympics.

Physical Disabilities Program

The Physical Disabilities Program offers daily social and recreational activities for adults ages 18-49. Activities include bowling, movie theater trip, weight training, chair aerobics, yoga, arts & crafts and field trips. Field trips are nominally priced.

For more information call (313) 628-0965.

Athletic Field Permits

Many of our parks feature baseball and softball diamonds, soccer fields, football fields, tennis courts, rugby fields, cricket and lacrosse fields can be permitted for league play and practice sessions.

For more information, please call 224-4356.

Aquatics

Our Aquatics Program offers everything from youth and adult swim lessons to water aerobics at seven indoor and three outdoor locations throughout the City. In addition, we offer our youth and adults the opportunity to participate in Swim Teams at six locations. Our competitive Swim Team program (youth, teen, adults, and senior citizens) not only enhances their swimming skills, but also teaches our youth, dedication, goal setting, and to be gracious competitors. Our swimmers compete locally, statewide, and nationally in swim meets.

Athletics

The Detroit Recreation Department offers seasonal organized youth team sports, including T-Ball, Flag Football, Soccer, Archery and Pee Wee Basketball.
